- 2. On July 24, 2007, defendant agreed to an exclusion of time under the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant the requested continuance would unreasonably deny defense counsel reasonable time necessary for effective preparation in this case, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. Defendant requested this time exclusion in order to allow his counsel time to review discovery that has recently been provided by the government and discovery that has not yet been provided by the government and to ensure continuity of defense counsel.
- 3. Given these circumstances, the Court found that the ends of justice served by excluding the period from July 24, 2007 through September 7, 2007 outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Id. at § 3161(h)(8)(A).
- 4. Accordingly, and with the consent of the defendant at the hearing on July 24, 2007, the Court ordered that the period from July 24, 2007 through September 7, 2007 be excluded from Speedy Trial Act calculations under 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A) & (B)(iv).

IT IS SO STIPULATED.
